G. R. Clark had formed the design of attack ing the forts of the British at Detroit and in Southern Illinois, and laid his plans be fore the Virginia Legislature. On the 2d of January, 1778, he received authority from Patrick Henry, then Governor of that State, to raise troops and to march west ward on his bold and hazardous enterprise. This expedition was successful, and as a consequence, Virginia laid claim to the territory north and west of the Ohio river. This claim was acknowledged by the other States, and Illinois was organized as a county of Virginia in October, 1778. The act was practically inoperative, as we can not find that any one in behalf of that State carried the law into effect. From that time till 1784 there was no legal au thority in the State. The people were a law unto themselves, and to the credit of the...
