Seasons Of Our Lives, consist of letters that the author wrote to God sharing her everyday experiences; containing letters that are divided up by the seasons of her life. Her early years are symbolized by Spring; consisting of her youth and growing up. It is full of color, activity, and growth. It will perhaps cause you to laugh, reflect, and bring back memories of your early years. The next season in this book contains her Summer period of discovery as she develop in her beliefs, maturity and career. Her Fall involves the growth of my faith, life struggles and relationships with those around me. And finally, we have her current season representing Winter, comprising vision, guidance and reflection. It is here that she impart the knowledge that she has learned over the years and provide advice to help others strive toward their greatest potential. Many people choose to go through life by accepting whatever it brings and merely trying to survive. While others realize that their lives are purposeful and know that everything happens for a reason. They take the time to observe and to claim victory in their lives. It does not matter what your circumstances are today, but it does matter how you choose to handle the challenges of your life. Don t just try, you can do it!.
