Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .2:30 a.m. is an amazing true story of Gods unconditional love. The story starts off with a phone call at 2:30 a.m. that set my life in a tailspin. As the sun was rising at 6:30 a.m. that morning, God clearly told me that he has opened the doors for healing to begin. I did not understand at that time what He was talking about, but as the day progressed I learned clearly what He meant. My whole family was affected by this phone call. God started opening doorways for my daughter and granddaughters to begin healing from sexual abuse. If that phone call had not happened, they may have took their dark secret to their grave. I praise God for that morning now, and the amazing journey that God has saw me and my family through. My friend had gaiven me a picture that I hung in my kitchen that read this "What God brings you to, he will see you thru." Even when I was in my darkest moments I always knew God was there with me and that this too would pass. So many things that God taught me on this journey, was to trust and wait patiently on Him, to persevere and to keep pressing on. Sexual abuse is a raging epidemic in our country. The statistics on child abuse is that every third household there is a child being molested by a father, uncle, grandfather, brother or cousin. Children are told not to tell anyone for if they do it will be all their fault. So many children are carrying around these dark secrets and live in fear. There has...
