AAPC - Autism Asperger Publishing Co., 2014. Softcover. Book Condition: New. For parents and teachers who need solutions to some common and not-so-common questions about young children's behavior. This is a hands-on reference for parents, other caregivers, and teachers that takes a unique approach to children's behaviors that often dismay and puzzle adults. Using a practical and reader-friendly format, the book presents the following: ? Each behavior, such as crying, on a two-page spread ? Clear and easy-to-read sections such as: ? Question?Plausible Answers (does it stem from social, sensory, communication issues) ? Basic Training (suggestions for what to do) ? Over and Above (further ideas, who to consult in serious cases, etc.) ? Red Flags (first signs that the behavior needs attention) ? What's Next (possible followup). Applicable to children up to five years old. "Why Do They Do That? is the quintessential question that parents and educators find themselves asking again and again about children. It is difficult to balance professionalism, accuracy, and research with compelling, upbeat, humorous writing, but Glenda and Paul have hit the jackpot with this easy-to-navigate format. I can see anyone with a child in his/her life loving this resource from educators at all levels to parents and grandparents. I will use it in my college classes teaching child development majors and also give it as gifts to other educators and parents."?Deya Brashears Hill, Ed.D., Diablo Valley College "Why Do They Do That? is a very useful resource for parents, teachers, and caregivers of young children. It reviews potential concerns across several important domains, including social, sensory, and communication, in one very easy-to-use and well-organized book. The concern-based format focusing on specific behaviors allows readers to quickly find clear, practical, and understandable explanations and potential strategies. More important, the book provides appropriate next steps...
