Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Permanent Court of Arbitration at the Hague, United States Venezuela Arbitration Protocol, of February 13, 1909: The Counter Case of the United States of America on Behalf of the Orinoco Steamship Company Against the United States of Venezuela; With Appendix Within an additional term of four months, either of the parties may in like manner present a counter case with documents and additional evidence and depositions, in answer to the case, documents, evidence and depositions of the other party. Within sixty days from the expiration of the time designated for the filing of the counter cases, each Government may, through its Representative, make its arguments before the arbitral tribunal, either orally or in writing, and each shall deliver to the other copies of any arguments thus made in writing, and each party shall have a right to reply in writing, provided such reply be submitted within the sixty days last named. The last paragraph of Article X of the Protocol reads as follows: The arbitral tribunal shall meet at The Hague twelve months from the date of this Protocol to begin its deliberations and to hear the arguments submitted to it. Within sixty days after the hearings are closed its decisions shall be rendered. It will be observed that these provisions require, first, the presentation on the part of each Government of a case, with the documents and evidence on which it relies, together with the testimony of its respective witnesses. Secondly, they permit the presentation of a counter case with documents and additional evidence and depositions, in answer to the case, documents, evidence and depositions of the other party, and, thirdly, they also entitle...
