Utah State University Press, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 145 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Again and again in Christina Hutchins's exquisite Tender the Maker, poems startle us into awareness of the overlooked, the nearly always invisible (such as a library's unused dictionary), and the marvelous, those aspects of life that come under the rubric of mystery, in all senses of the word. Hutchins combines a pitch-perfect and precise lyricism with a postmodern sensibility of language's materiality. Cynthia Hogue, judge for the 2015 May Swenson Poetry Award An elegantly crafted, dense work that invites readers to travel on spiritual, philosophical, and historical journeys. Kirkus Reviews The May Swenson Poetry Award is an annual competition named for May Swenson, one of America's most provocative and vital writers. During her long career, Swenson was loved and praised by writers from virtually every school of American poetry. She left a legacy of fifty years of writing when she died in 1989. She is buried in her hometown of Logan, Utah.
