Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Adjutant-General of the State of North Carolina for the Year, 1919 To his Excellency, The Honorable Locke Craig, Governor and Commander-in-Chief. Sir: - Under the provisions of Chapter 47, Public Laws of North Carolina, Acts of 1913, I have the honor to submit the report of the Military Department for the year ending December 31, 1915. General Condition of the National Guard The condition of the National Guard at this time is very satisfactory, as is shown by Table 2 on page 10. This table is a compilation of the data contained in the reports of the Federal Officers detailed under section 14 of the amended Militia Laws to inspect the organized militia. It will be noted that this table shows marked improvement in all lines over previous reports, with the exception of the physical examination of the enlisted personnel. It has been a physical impossibility to comply strictly with the requirements of the War Department in this particular, due to the fact that no funds have been provided by either the State or the Federal Government for meeting the expenses. The Medical Officers have in some cases examined the men enlisted in organizations located in the same town. This work has been done by such officers without compensation. Inasmuch as the examination is required by the Federal authorities it would seem that provision should be made whereby the expenses in this connection could be met. It would be to the interest of the Federal Government to do so for the reason that in the event of a call for Federal service a very great expense could be saved which would...
