Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Robin Blake is a reserved, but charming loner, whose only family is her husband, the powerful divorce attorney, David Blake. She is devastated when she finds he has been unfaithful, and attempts suicide as a way to exact revenge. She quickly finds herself in far more peril than mere infidelity as she enters an enchanted dimension with accursed immortals, and finds she is a giver of this infamous curse. Her valuable gift becomes her own curse as she is pursued and stolen by the evil King Raoul. Lord Soren, a knight of the kingdom of Nemir, is tasked with rescuing Robin before she is forced to create more Cursed. She develops a passion for Soren, but struggles with guilt, thinking she has no right to love again after her suicide. She begins to question Lord Soren and the great king of Nemir, who harbor an ancient, shared secret. Suzanne Bertussi is a writer of fantasy and science-fiction. She has written four novels, three of which make up the Less Mortal trilogy, which intertwines both fantasy and science-fiction. She grew up in various cities in Utah and Arizona, her experiences with family and friends providing the emotional, uplifting, and sometimes difficult life experiences that serve to inspire her writing. Suzanne has a passion for all things outside of reality, a passion that started when her fourth-grade teacher read Lloyd Alexander's The Prydain Chronicles aloud in class. At that tender age, she found she was hooked on fantasy, and soon after, science-fiction. She began writing short stories and poetry at an early age, and began to get the idea for her first novel in her early twenties....
