

The image shows a resource card for the Silberberg Fourth Edition General Chemistry. It features a periodic table of elements, color-coded by groups: main group elements (purple, green, yellow, orange), transition elements (blue), and inner transition elements (pink). Below the periodic table, there are several tables of data, including atomic weights, atomic numbers, and other chemical properties. The card is titled 'Silberberg Fourth Edition General Chemistry Resource Card' and 'Periodic Table of the Elements'.
