The New Media Nation: Indigenous Peoples and Global Communication

By Valerie Alia

Berghahn Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW PRINT ON DEMAND., The New Media Nation: Indigenous Peoples and Global Communication, Valerie Alia, ".a scholar with extensive knowledge of indigenous life in the Canadian North, has compiled a valuable and timely compendium on how Native societies from the Arctic to Australia use new media technologies to reinforce local cultures and establish global connections.Highly recommended." * Choice "There is a lot of fascinating material in this book and it is striking that, the internet notwithstanding, radio remains central to indigenous media activity.Alia provides a very useful chronology which, although it starts in 11,000 BC, concentrates on developments in the last 100 years. There is also a filmography of indigenous films and videos." * British Journal of Canadian Studies "Alia should be commended for revealing a world of indigenous media use. This wide-ranging study lays a foundation for the study of how indigenous people use new media technologies, and future researchers of indigenous media use will want to use this book as a starting point." * Anthropos "Alia has crafted an accessible book for many audiences. It is easy to read; includes critical theory that is relevant, applicable and understandable; and flows through...
