Excerpt: . . . The George Washington University BULLETIN Vol. VI June, 1907 No. 2 THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY, MOVEMENT. To share in this great work--the realization of George Washington's desire for a great university at the Capital of the Nation--all good Americans are invited. It is our purpose to build up in Washington an institution worthy of the name it bears. The promoters and adherents of The George Washington University Movement ask YOU to help to this end. INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY. This Movement to establish The George Washington University as a great non-sectarian institution on a private foundation began four years ago with the revision of its charter by Act of Congress. Its genesis is found in the efforts successfully exerted by President Needham to merge as far as possible under one corporation the agencies and facilities for advanced intellectual training already existing in Washington....
