Now it comes prominently into newspaper literature as a potential source of potash-bearing kelp. What is probably a record minimum judgment, other than a nominal one, is that for the full figure of a debt of fifty cents, awarded to the Rogers Drug Company, of Atlanta, Ga., against a dilatory customer. J. P. Jelinek, of St. Paul, Minn., is reported to have realized $10,000 on an investment of $3,000 in medicinal chemicals, made in July, 1914, on the tip of a traveling salesman. A course in pharmacy is now being offered among the night classes of the Central Continuation School, at Milwaukee, Wis. The town of Streeter, N. D., is looking for some optimistic druggist, willing to locate there and grow up with the community. During the year ending September 30th, the Virginia Board of Pharmacy examined 189 applicants for registration and passed ninety-one. The board also licensed fifteen pharmacists under its reciprocal arrangements with the boards of other states. Among the recommendations in the annual report of the board was one that graduation from a high-school be made a prerequisite of examination for registration. Things do change these times. Here is a saltmanufacturer, named Smith, of Hartford, W. Va., who has sold twenty tons of bromine to the German government. Is it any wonder bromides are sky-high in price? To get an insight of the world into which they are heading, the pharmacy students at the Oregon Agricultural College journeyed to...
