The committee makes this recommendation: that the initiation fee be dropped entirely, and that 50 cents be charged for a certificate of membership, and that the dues remain as they are now. Mr. Tobey takes the chair. On motion of Mr. Ogier, duly seconded, the report of the committee was accepted. Prof. Young: It seems to me that we are trying to do here by recommendation and resolution, that we are trying to explain one of the by-laws or part of the constitution in regard to the annual dues and the initiation fee. Mr. Herbst: This is just the recommendation of this committee. Now, there will have to be final action afterwards. Mr. Herbst submitted the following proposition in writing: Motion to amend Article II, chapter two of by-laws to read as follows: No person shall be considered a member of...
